Text of 36 CFR 61, Appendix A:

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR'S PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATION STANDARDS

In the following definitions, a year of fulltime professional experience need not consist of a continuous year of fulltime work but may be made up of discontinuous periods of fulltime or part time work adding up to the equivalent of a year of fulltime experience.

(1) At least two years of fulltime experience in research, writing, teaching, interpretation or other demonstrable professional activity with an academic institution, historical organization or agency, museum, or other professional institution; or

(2) Substantial contribution through research and publication to the body of scholarly knowledge in the field of history.

(b) Archeology. The minimum professional qualifications in archeology are a graduate degree in archeology, anthropology, or closely related field plus:

- 1) At least one year of fulltime professional experience or equivalent specialized training in archeological research, administration or management;
- (2) At least four months of supervised field and analytic experience in general North American archeology; and
- (3) Demonstrated ability to carry research to completion.

In addition, to these minimum qualifications, a professional in prehistoric archeology shall have at least one year of fulltime professional experience at a supervisory level in the study of archeological resources of the prehistoric period. A professional in historic archeology shall have at least one year of fulltime professional experience at a supervisory level in the study of archeological resources of the historic period.

I hereby certify that I meet the above qualification standards of the Secretary of the Interior in archaeology in the following area(s) [check one or both]:

Prehistoric archaeology

Historic archaeology
