

Men's Traditional Dance

The Men's Traditional simulates the warrior stalking his prey or preparing for battle. He usually carries an eagle feather fan and a staff and wears a single bustle, arm bands, ankle bells, and a roach. The Ojibwe word for warrior is Ogichidaa.

Women's Traditional Dance

Traditional Women Dancers are looked upon with reverence
at powwows.

Women's Traditional
exemplifies grace,
humility, and dignity.

The Ojibwe word for humility is Dabasenimowin

WISCONSIN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A favorite of the children from Fairyland...

Cinderella

She accepts her slipper from the handsome Prince.

In the parade this Cinderella Float was pulled by 8 ponies.

The Bell Player seated in the rear of the Bell Wagon in front of levers, each connected by wire to one of 9 bell clappers.

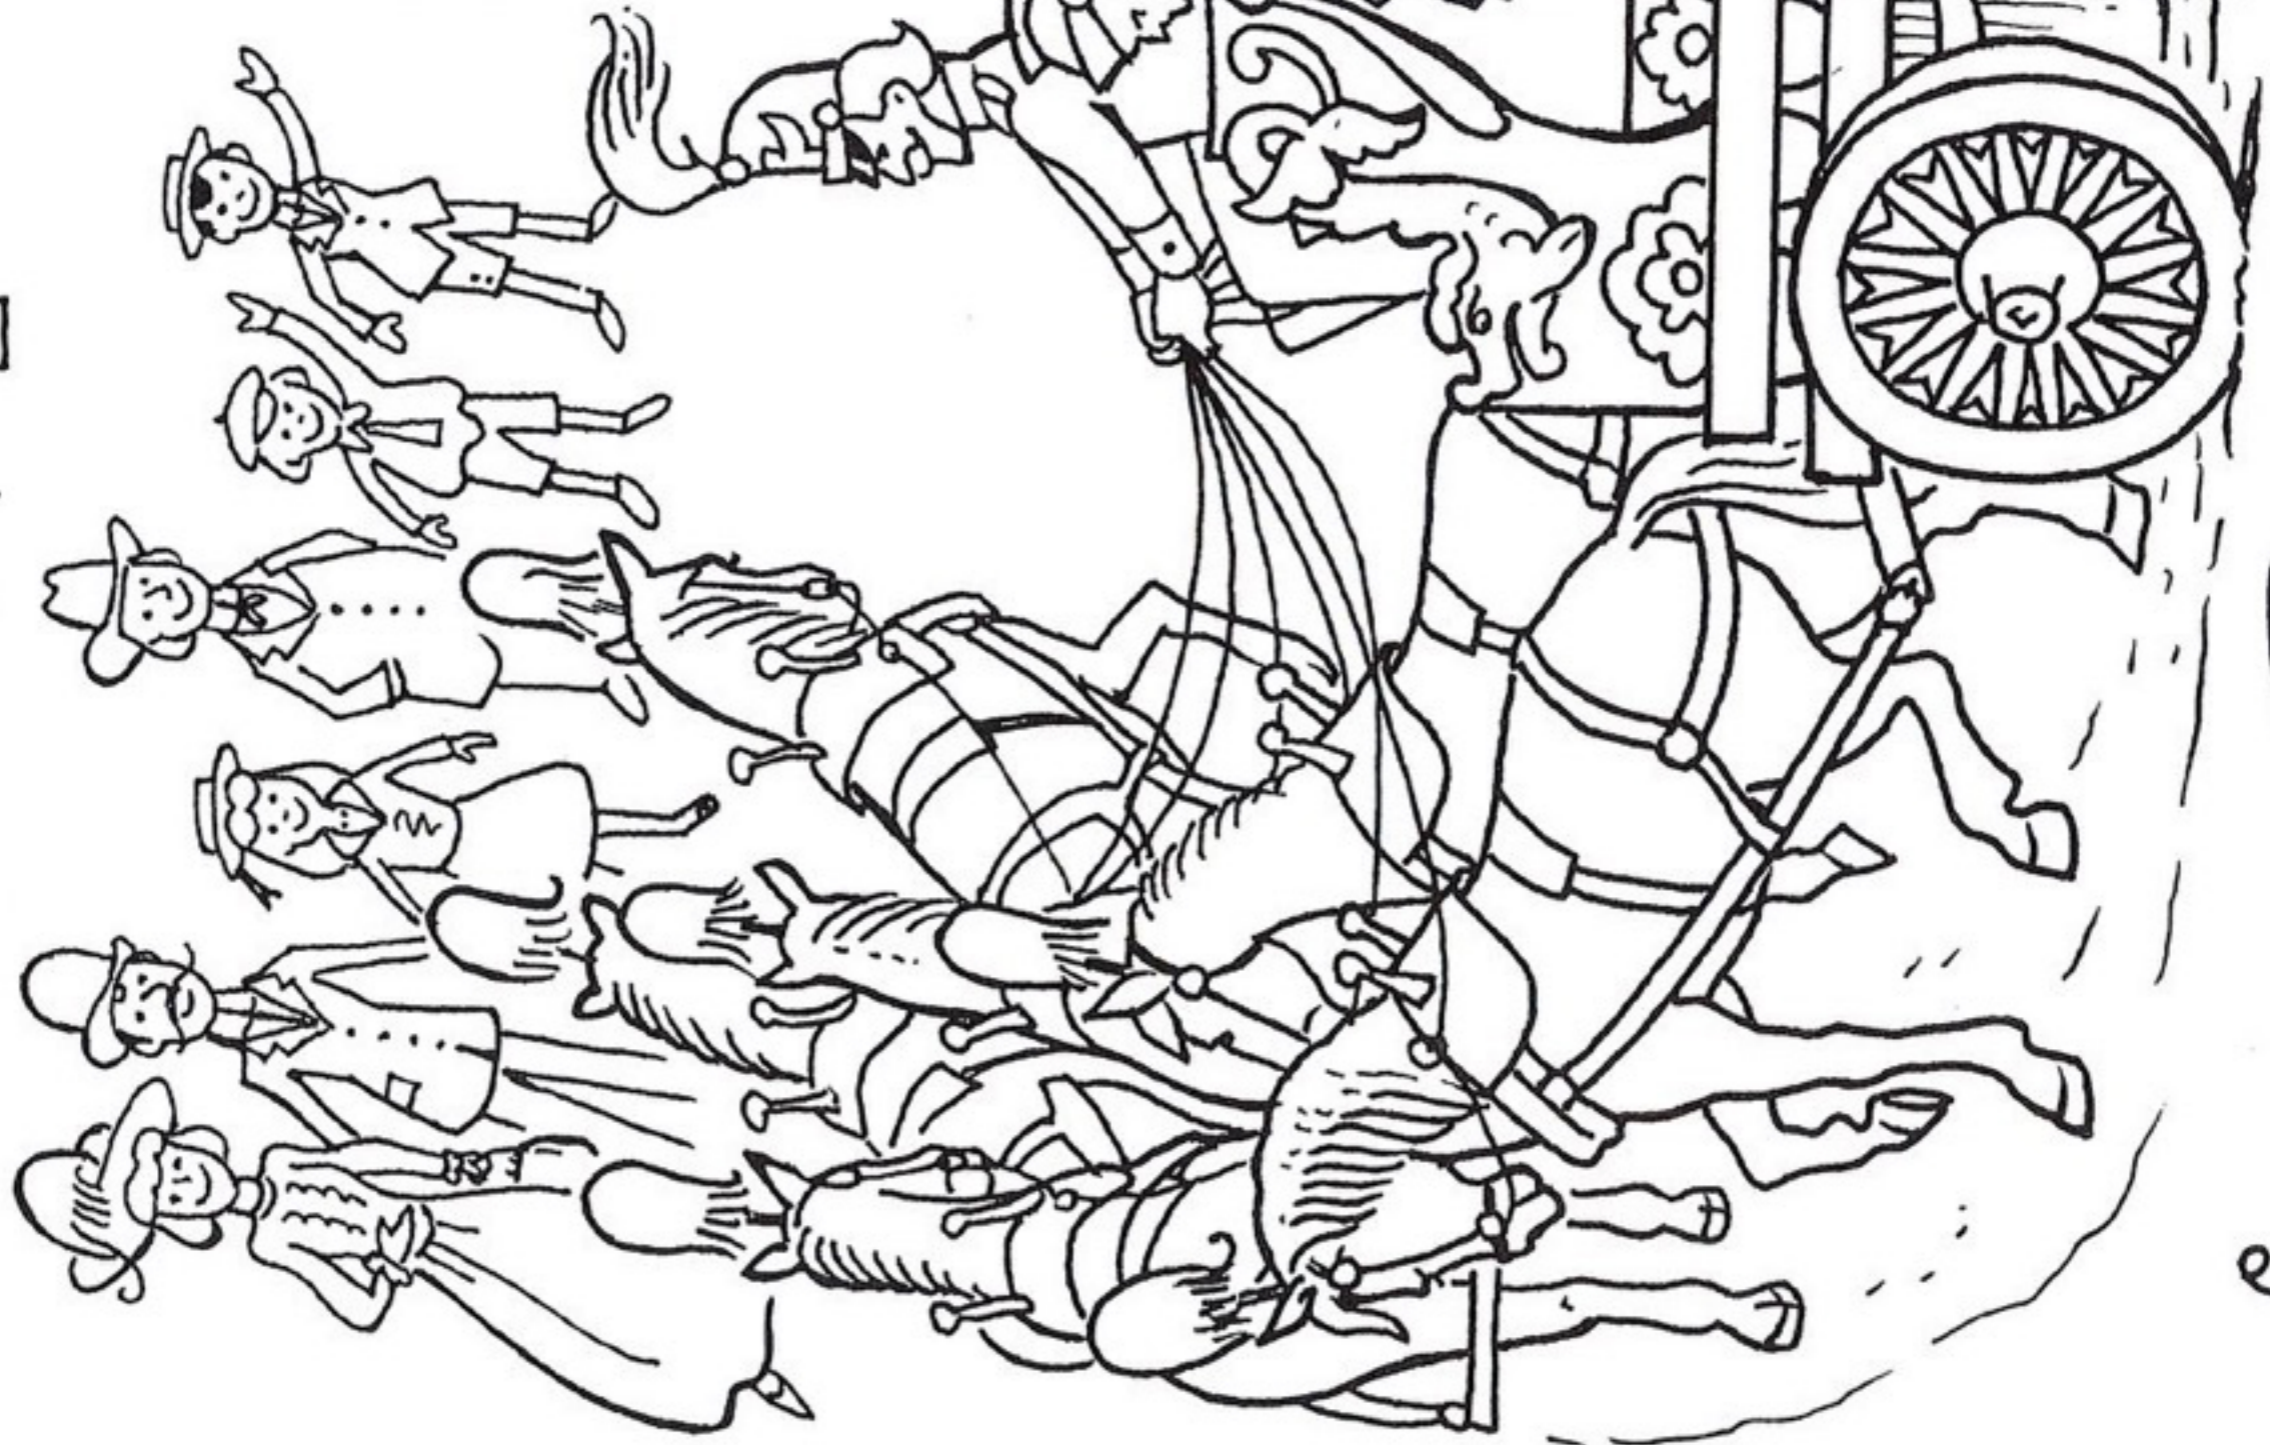

This is the famous

✧ Ringling Bell Wagon ✧

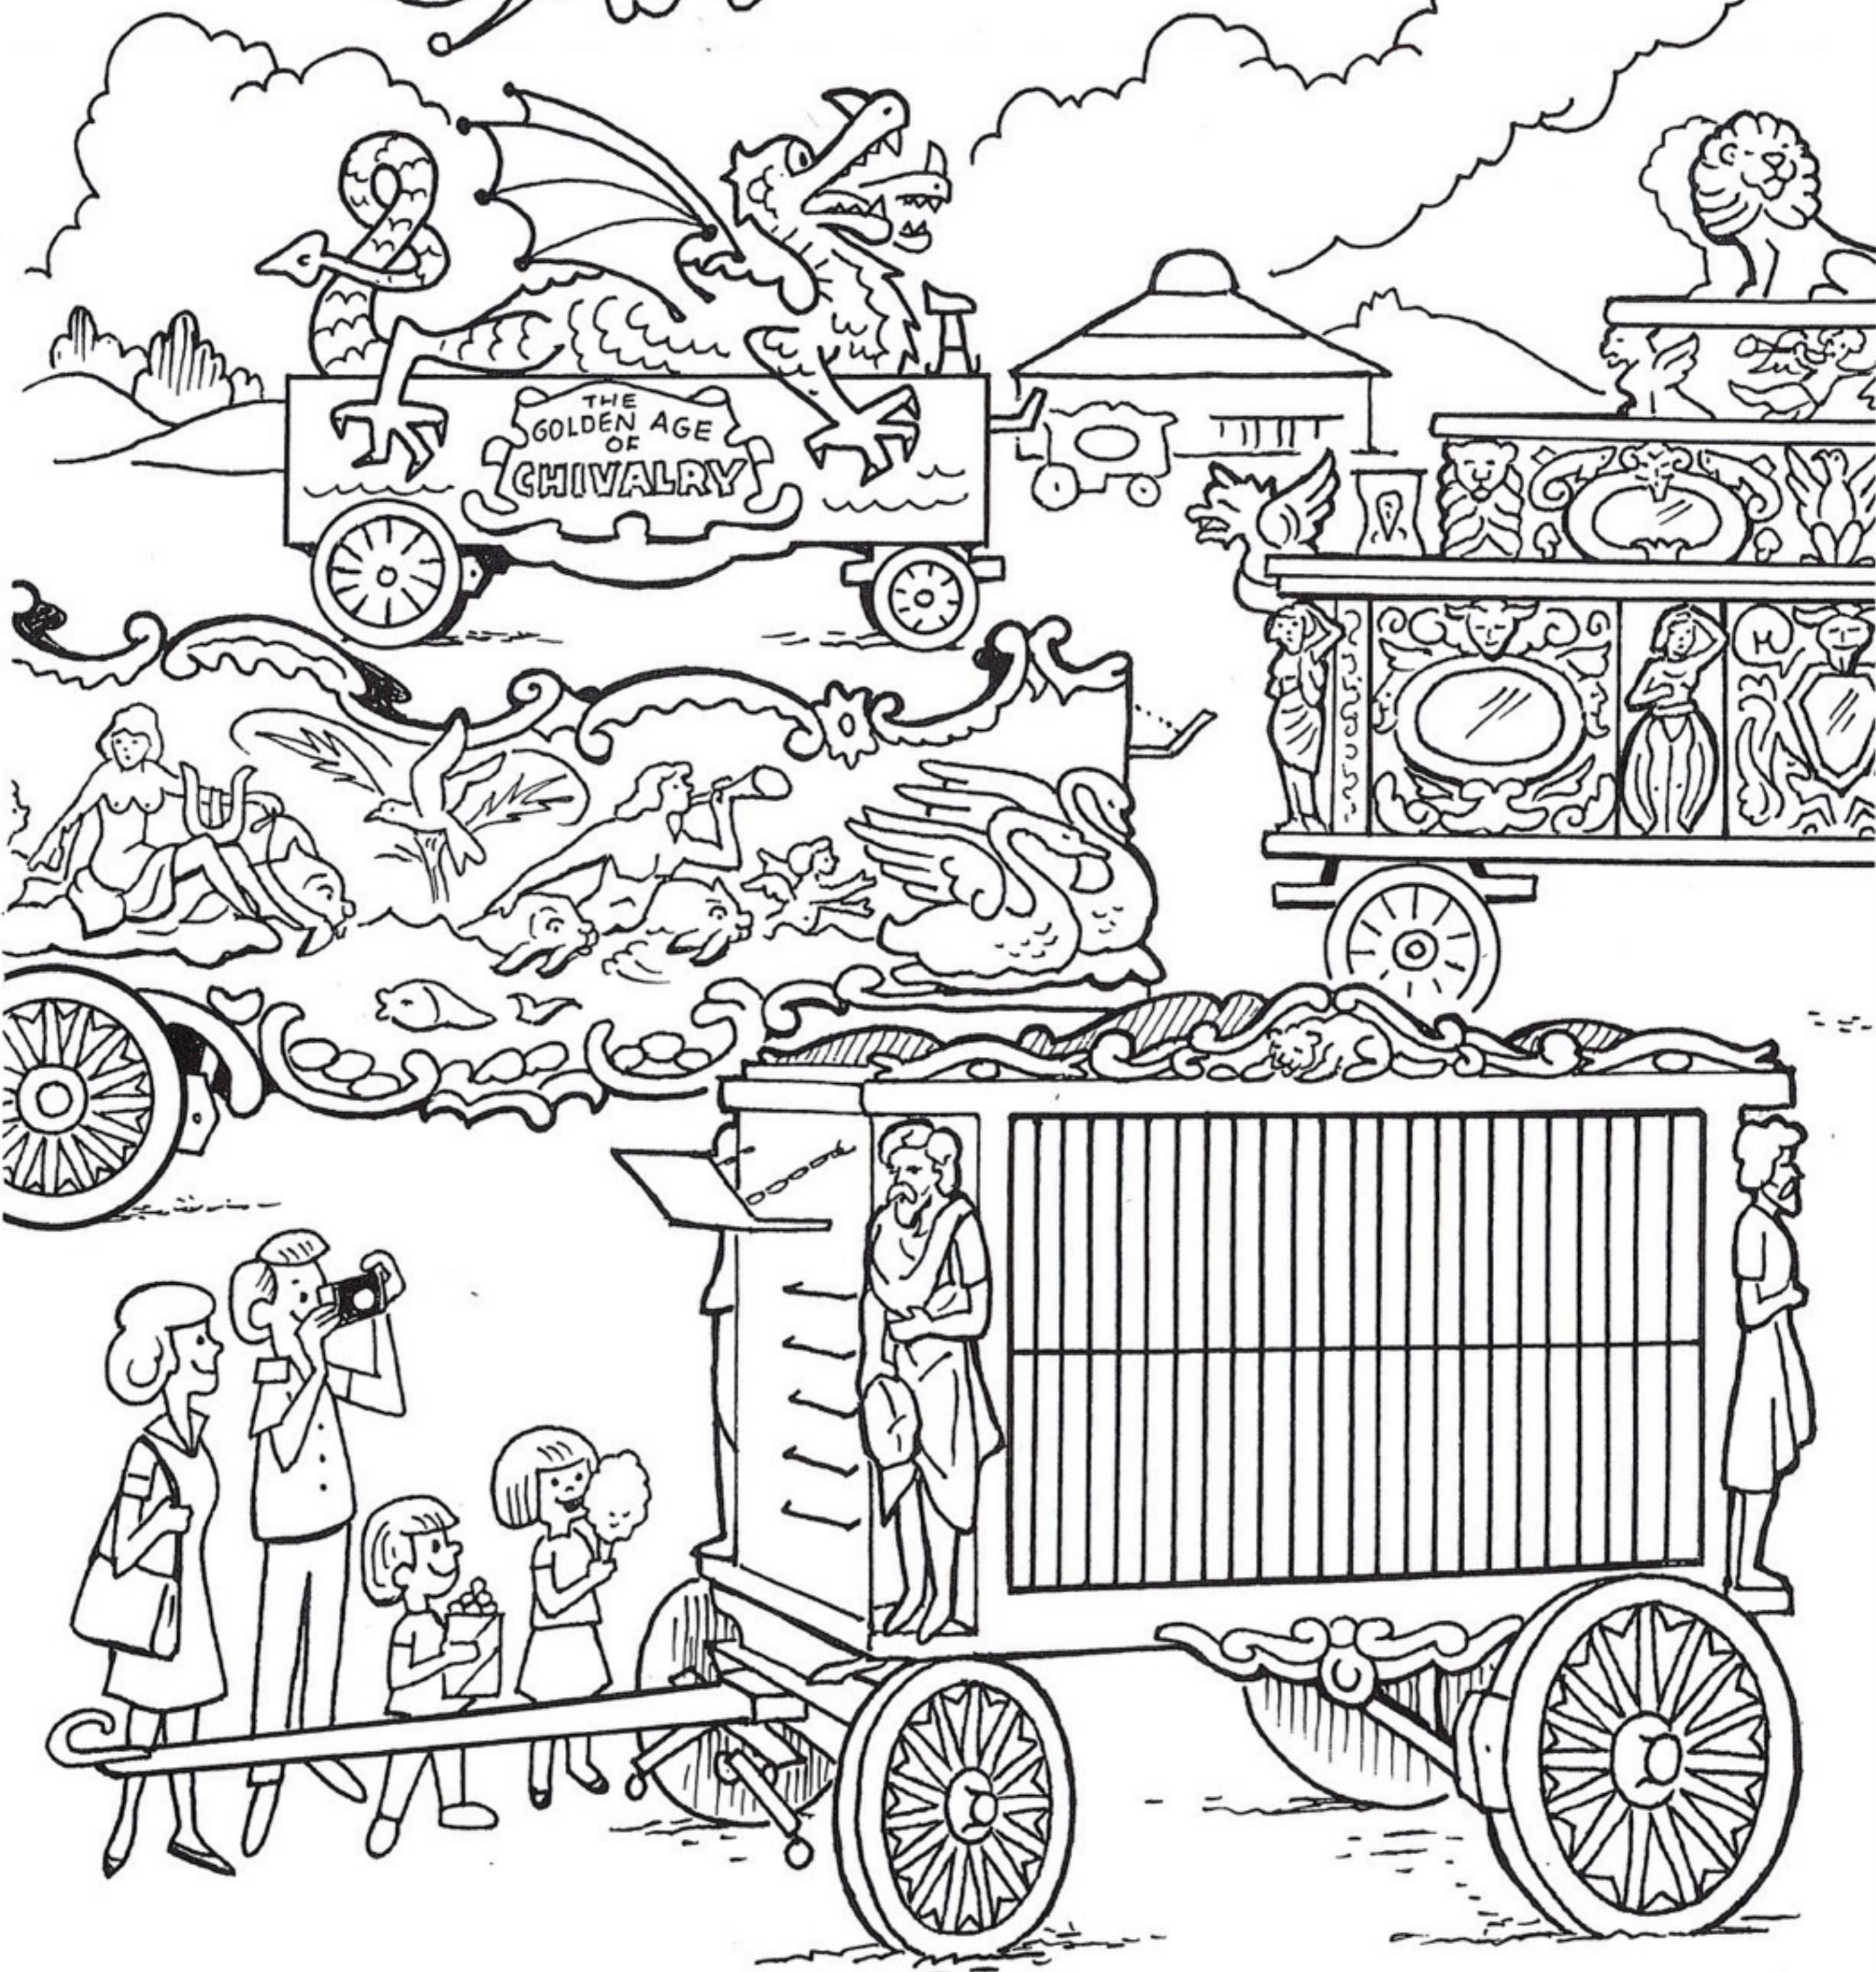

Sometimes called
"The Colossal Cathedral Chimes of Moscow's famed Kremlin Tower."
It was built in Baraboo.

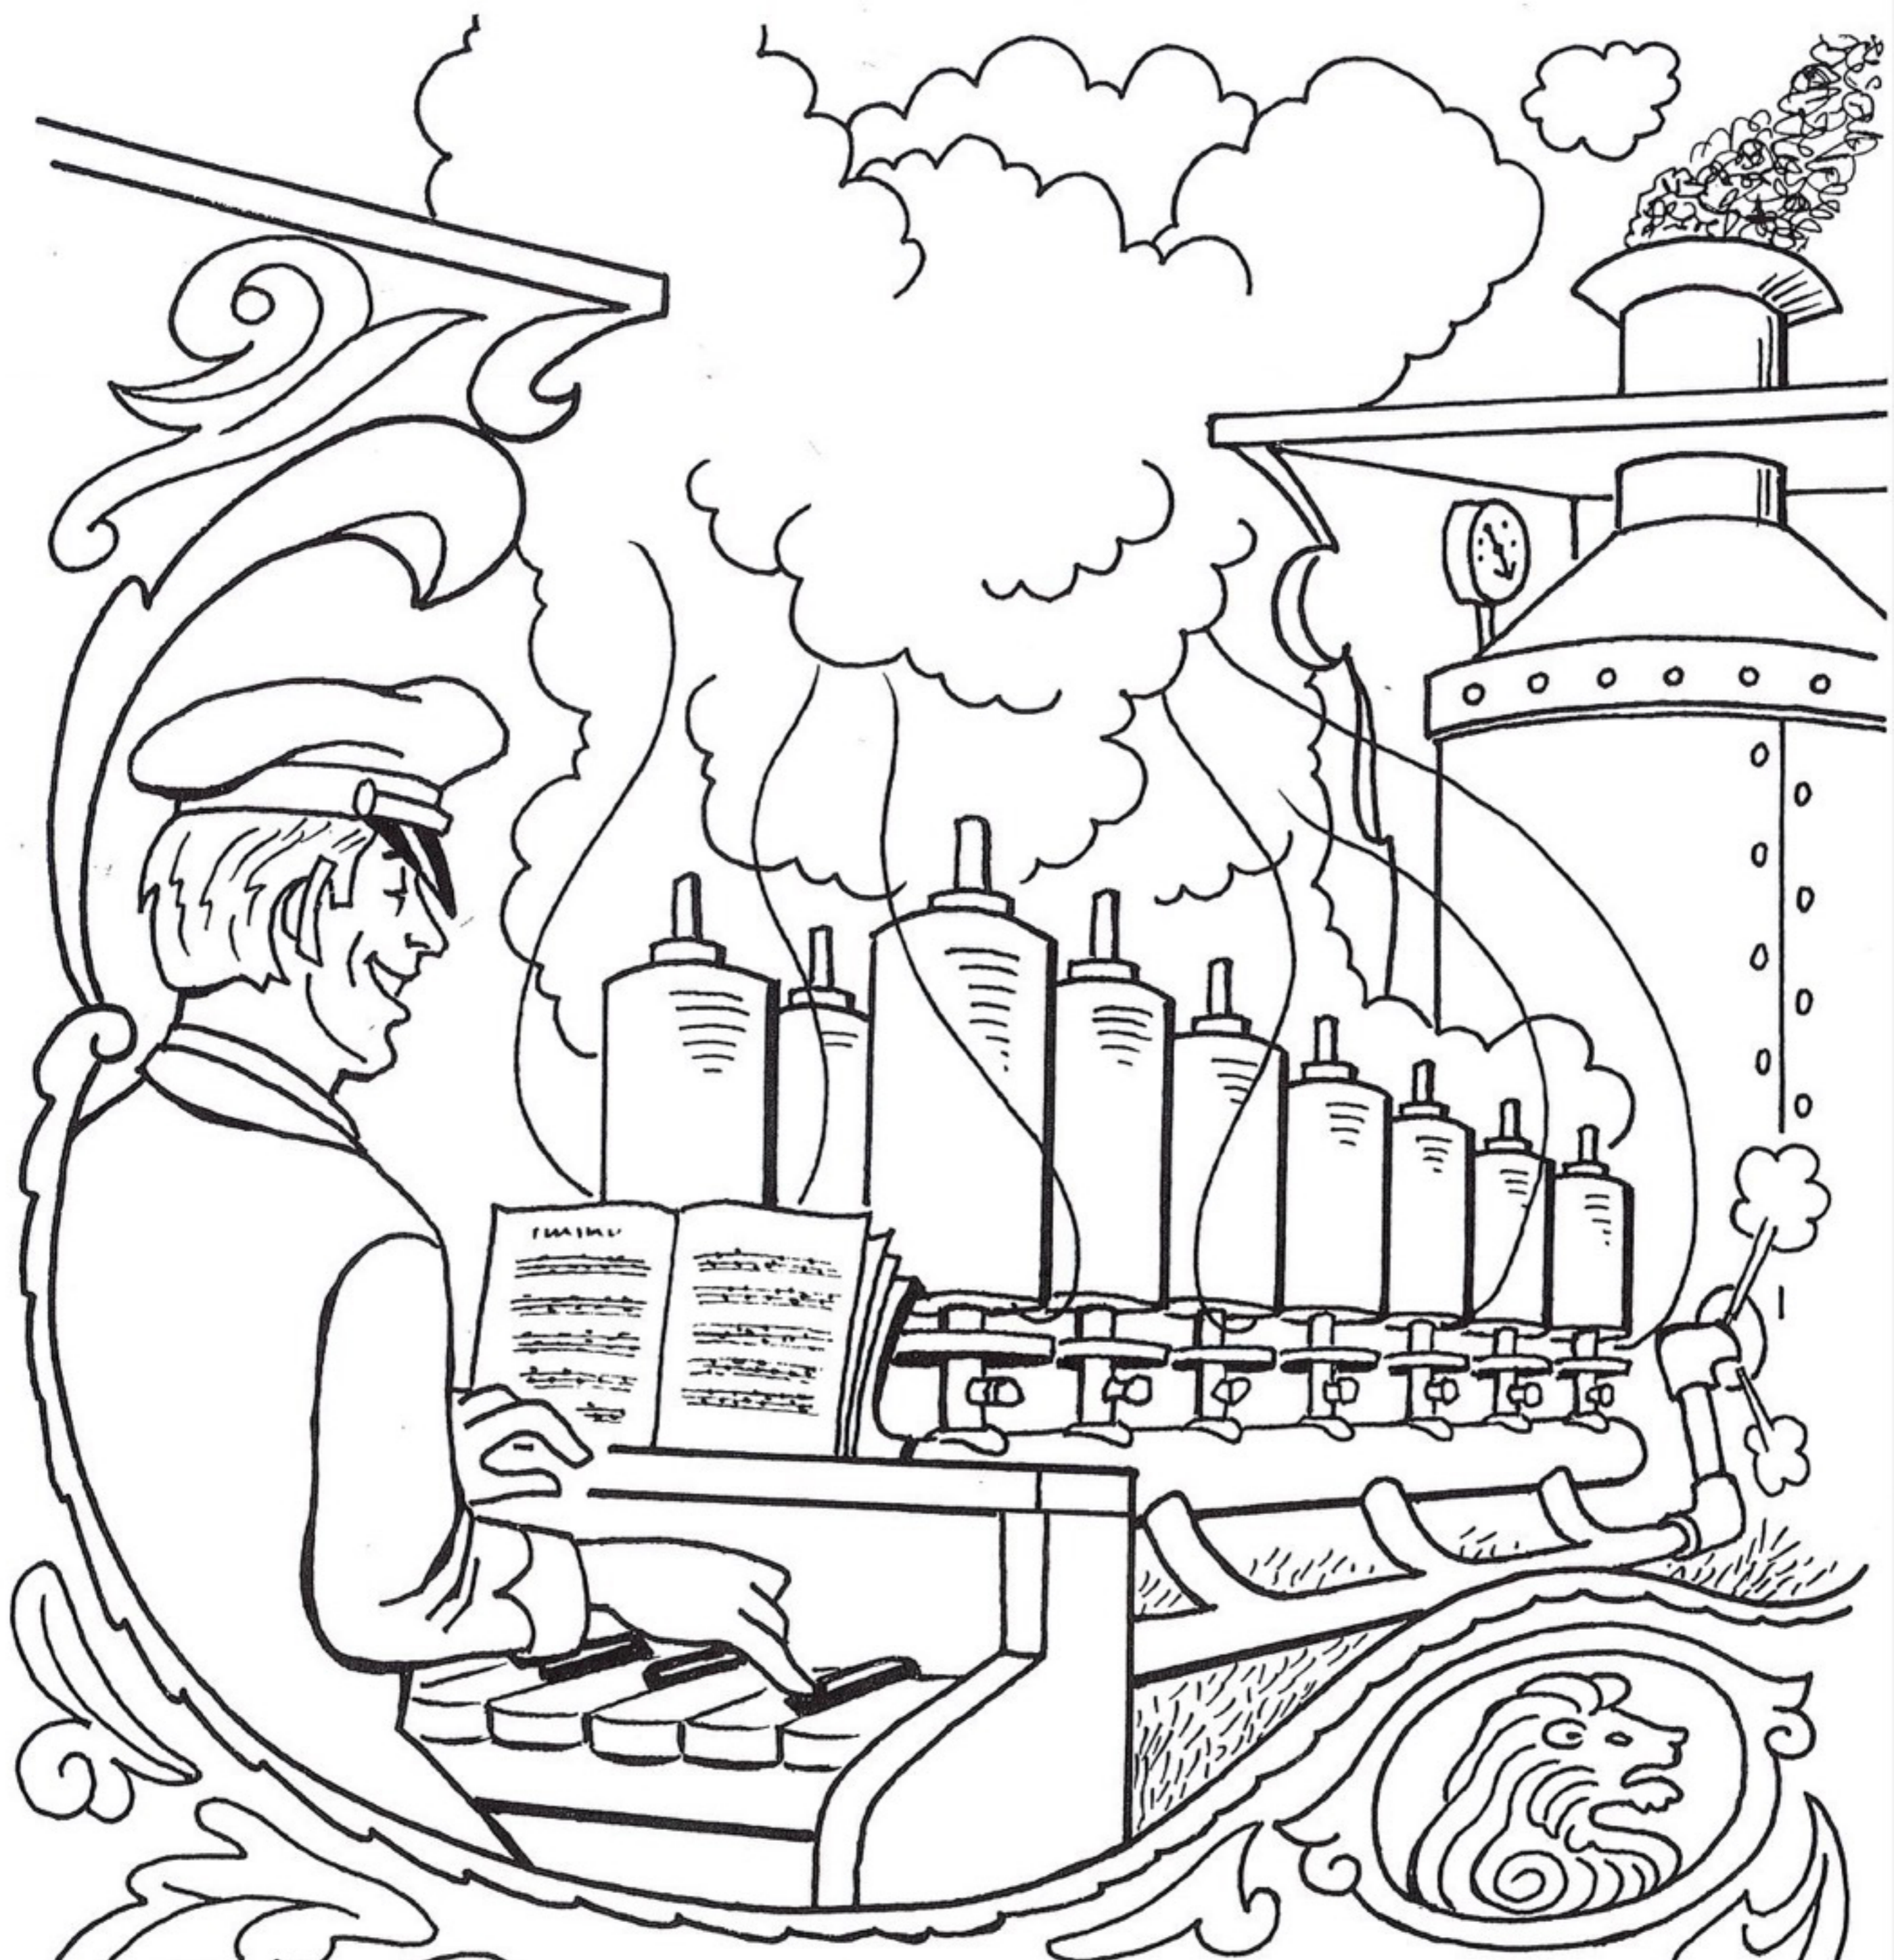

This is how it looked in an 1890's parade.

CIRCUS WORLD MUSEUM has many old historic

ORNATE WAGONS

Steam from the boiler passes through the brass whistles on the steam calliophone when the musician presses on the keyboard. Steam calliophone music is very loud.

The Steam
Calliope

Circus World Museum.

★ COLE BROS. CIRCUS ★

AMERICA

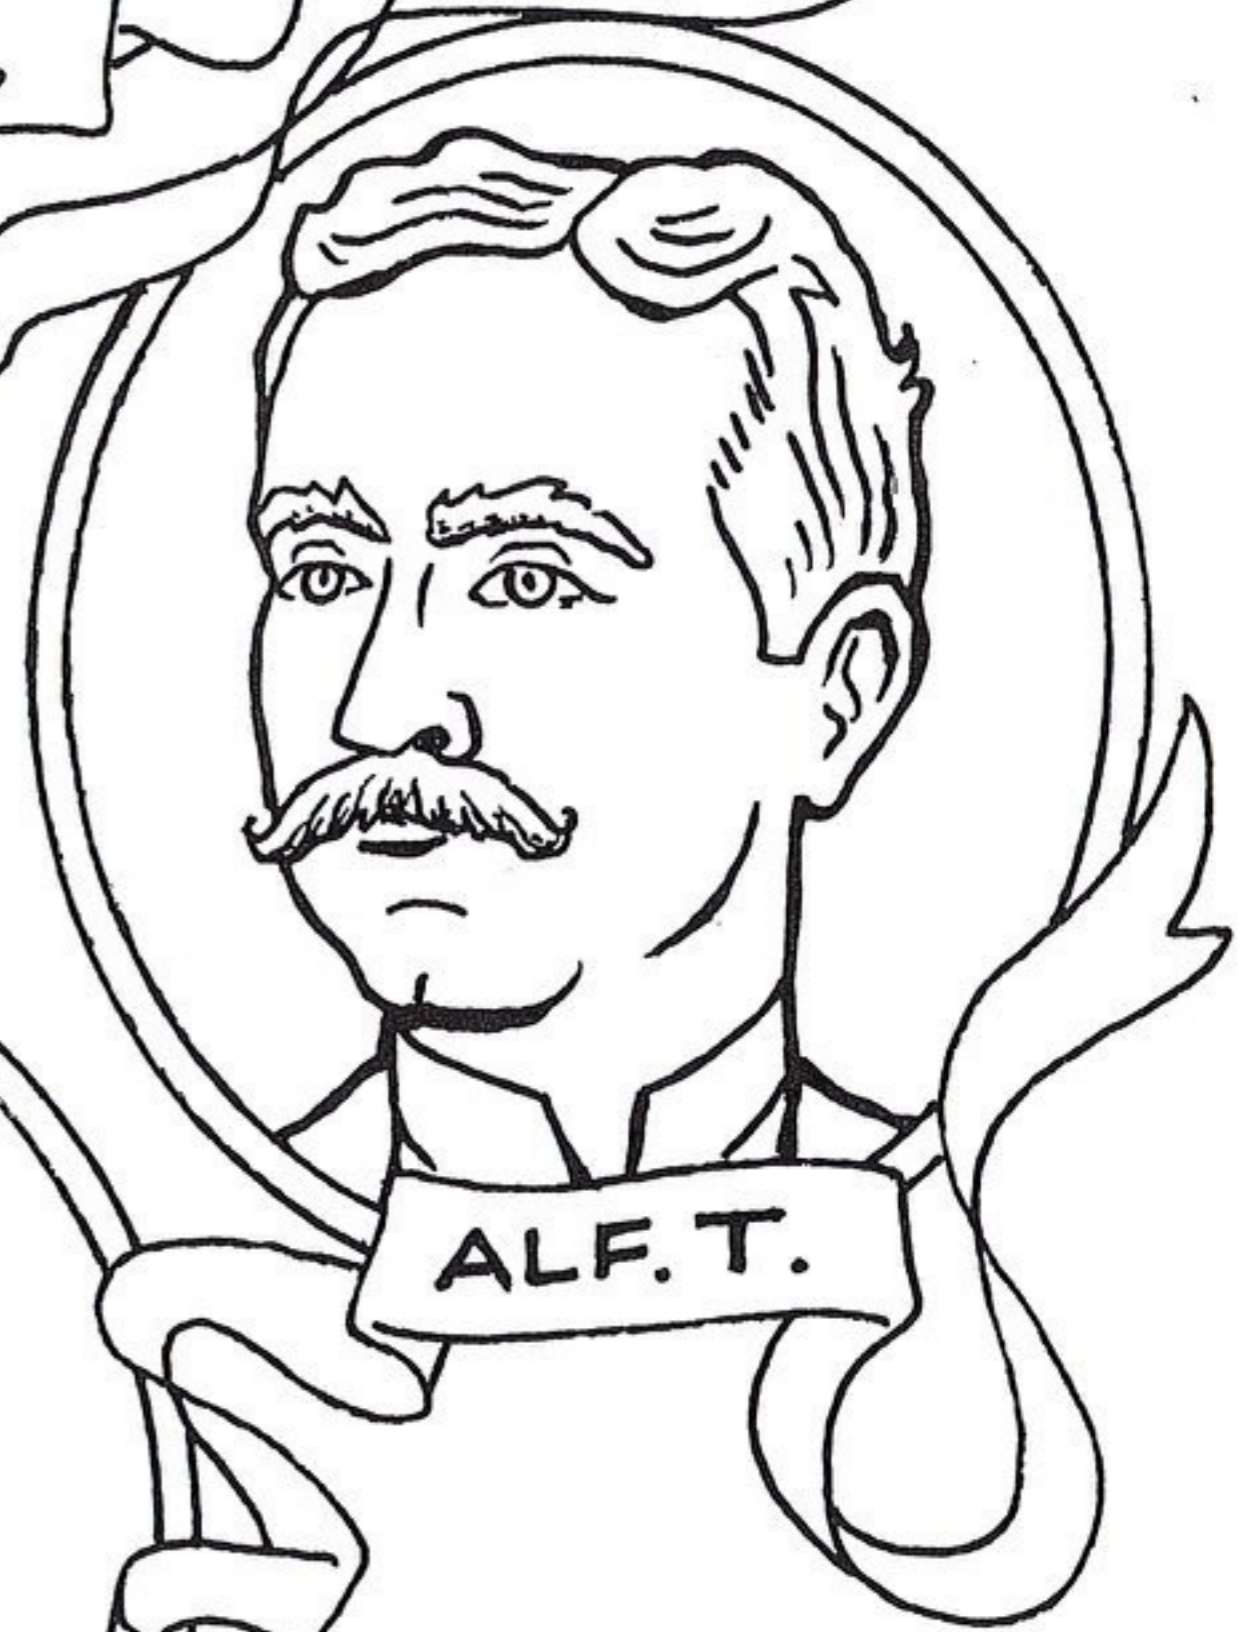

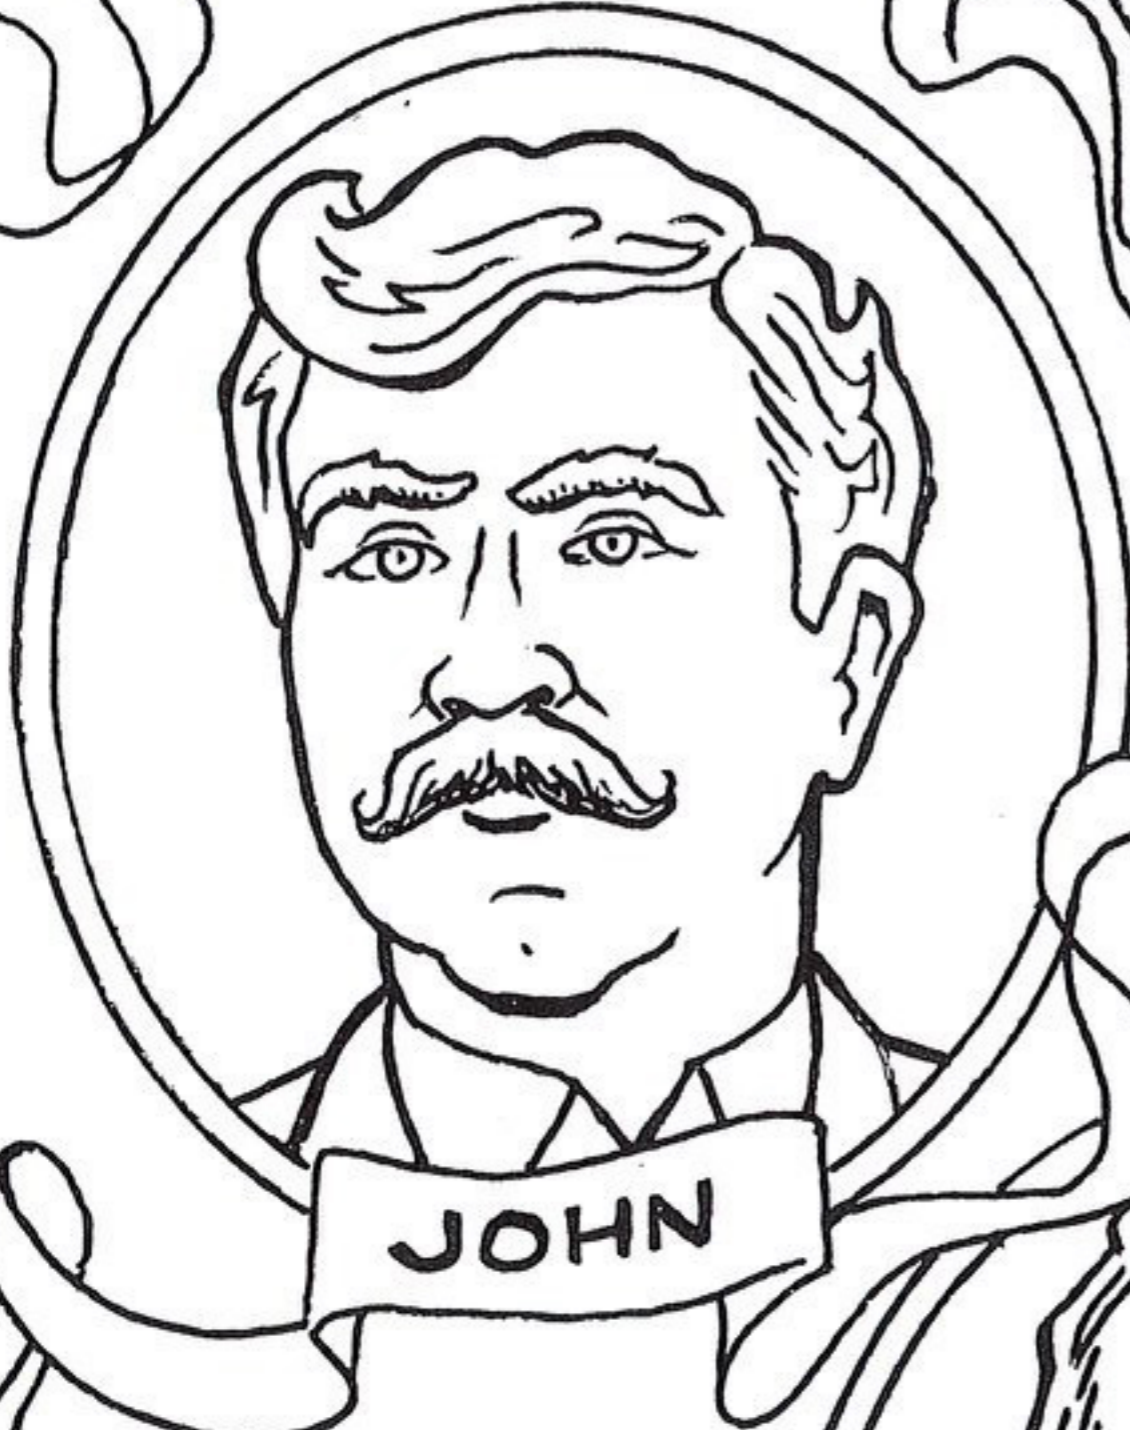

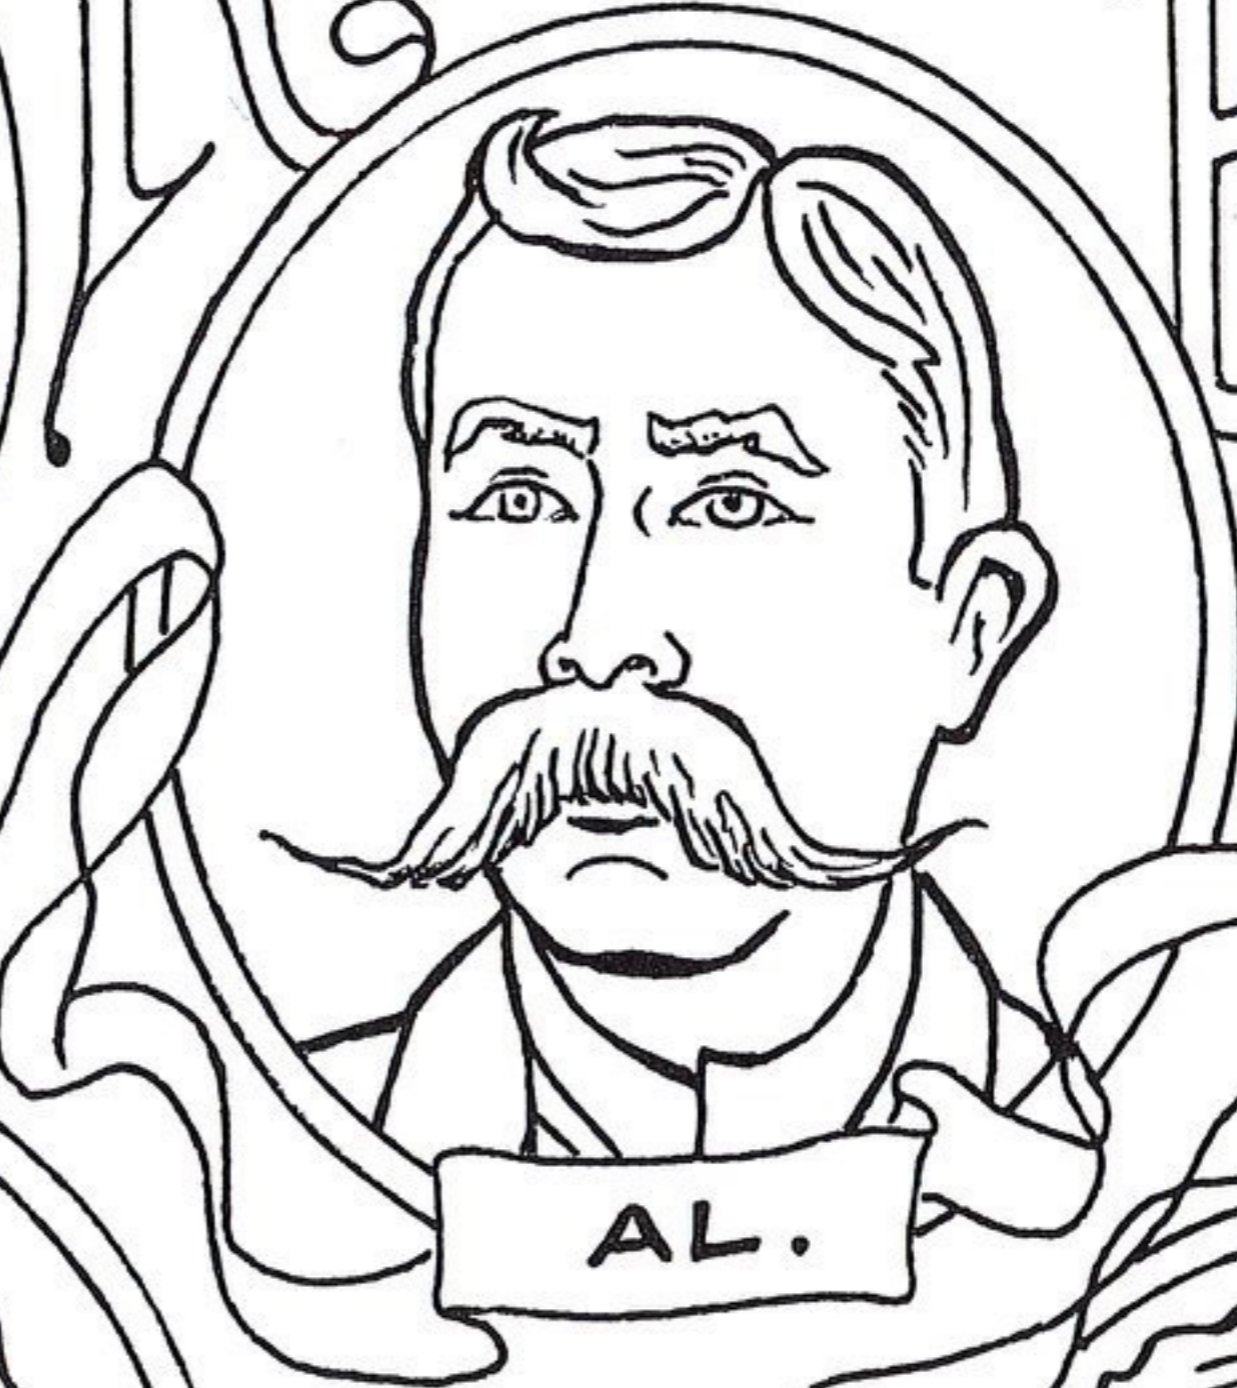

CHILI

CANADA

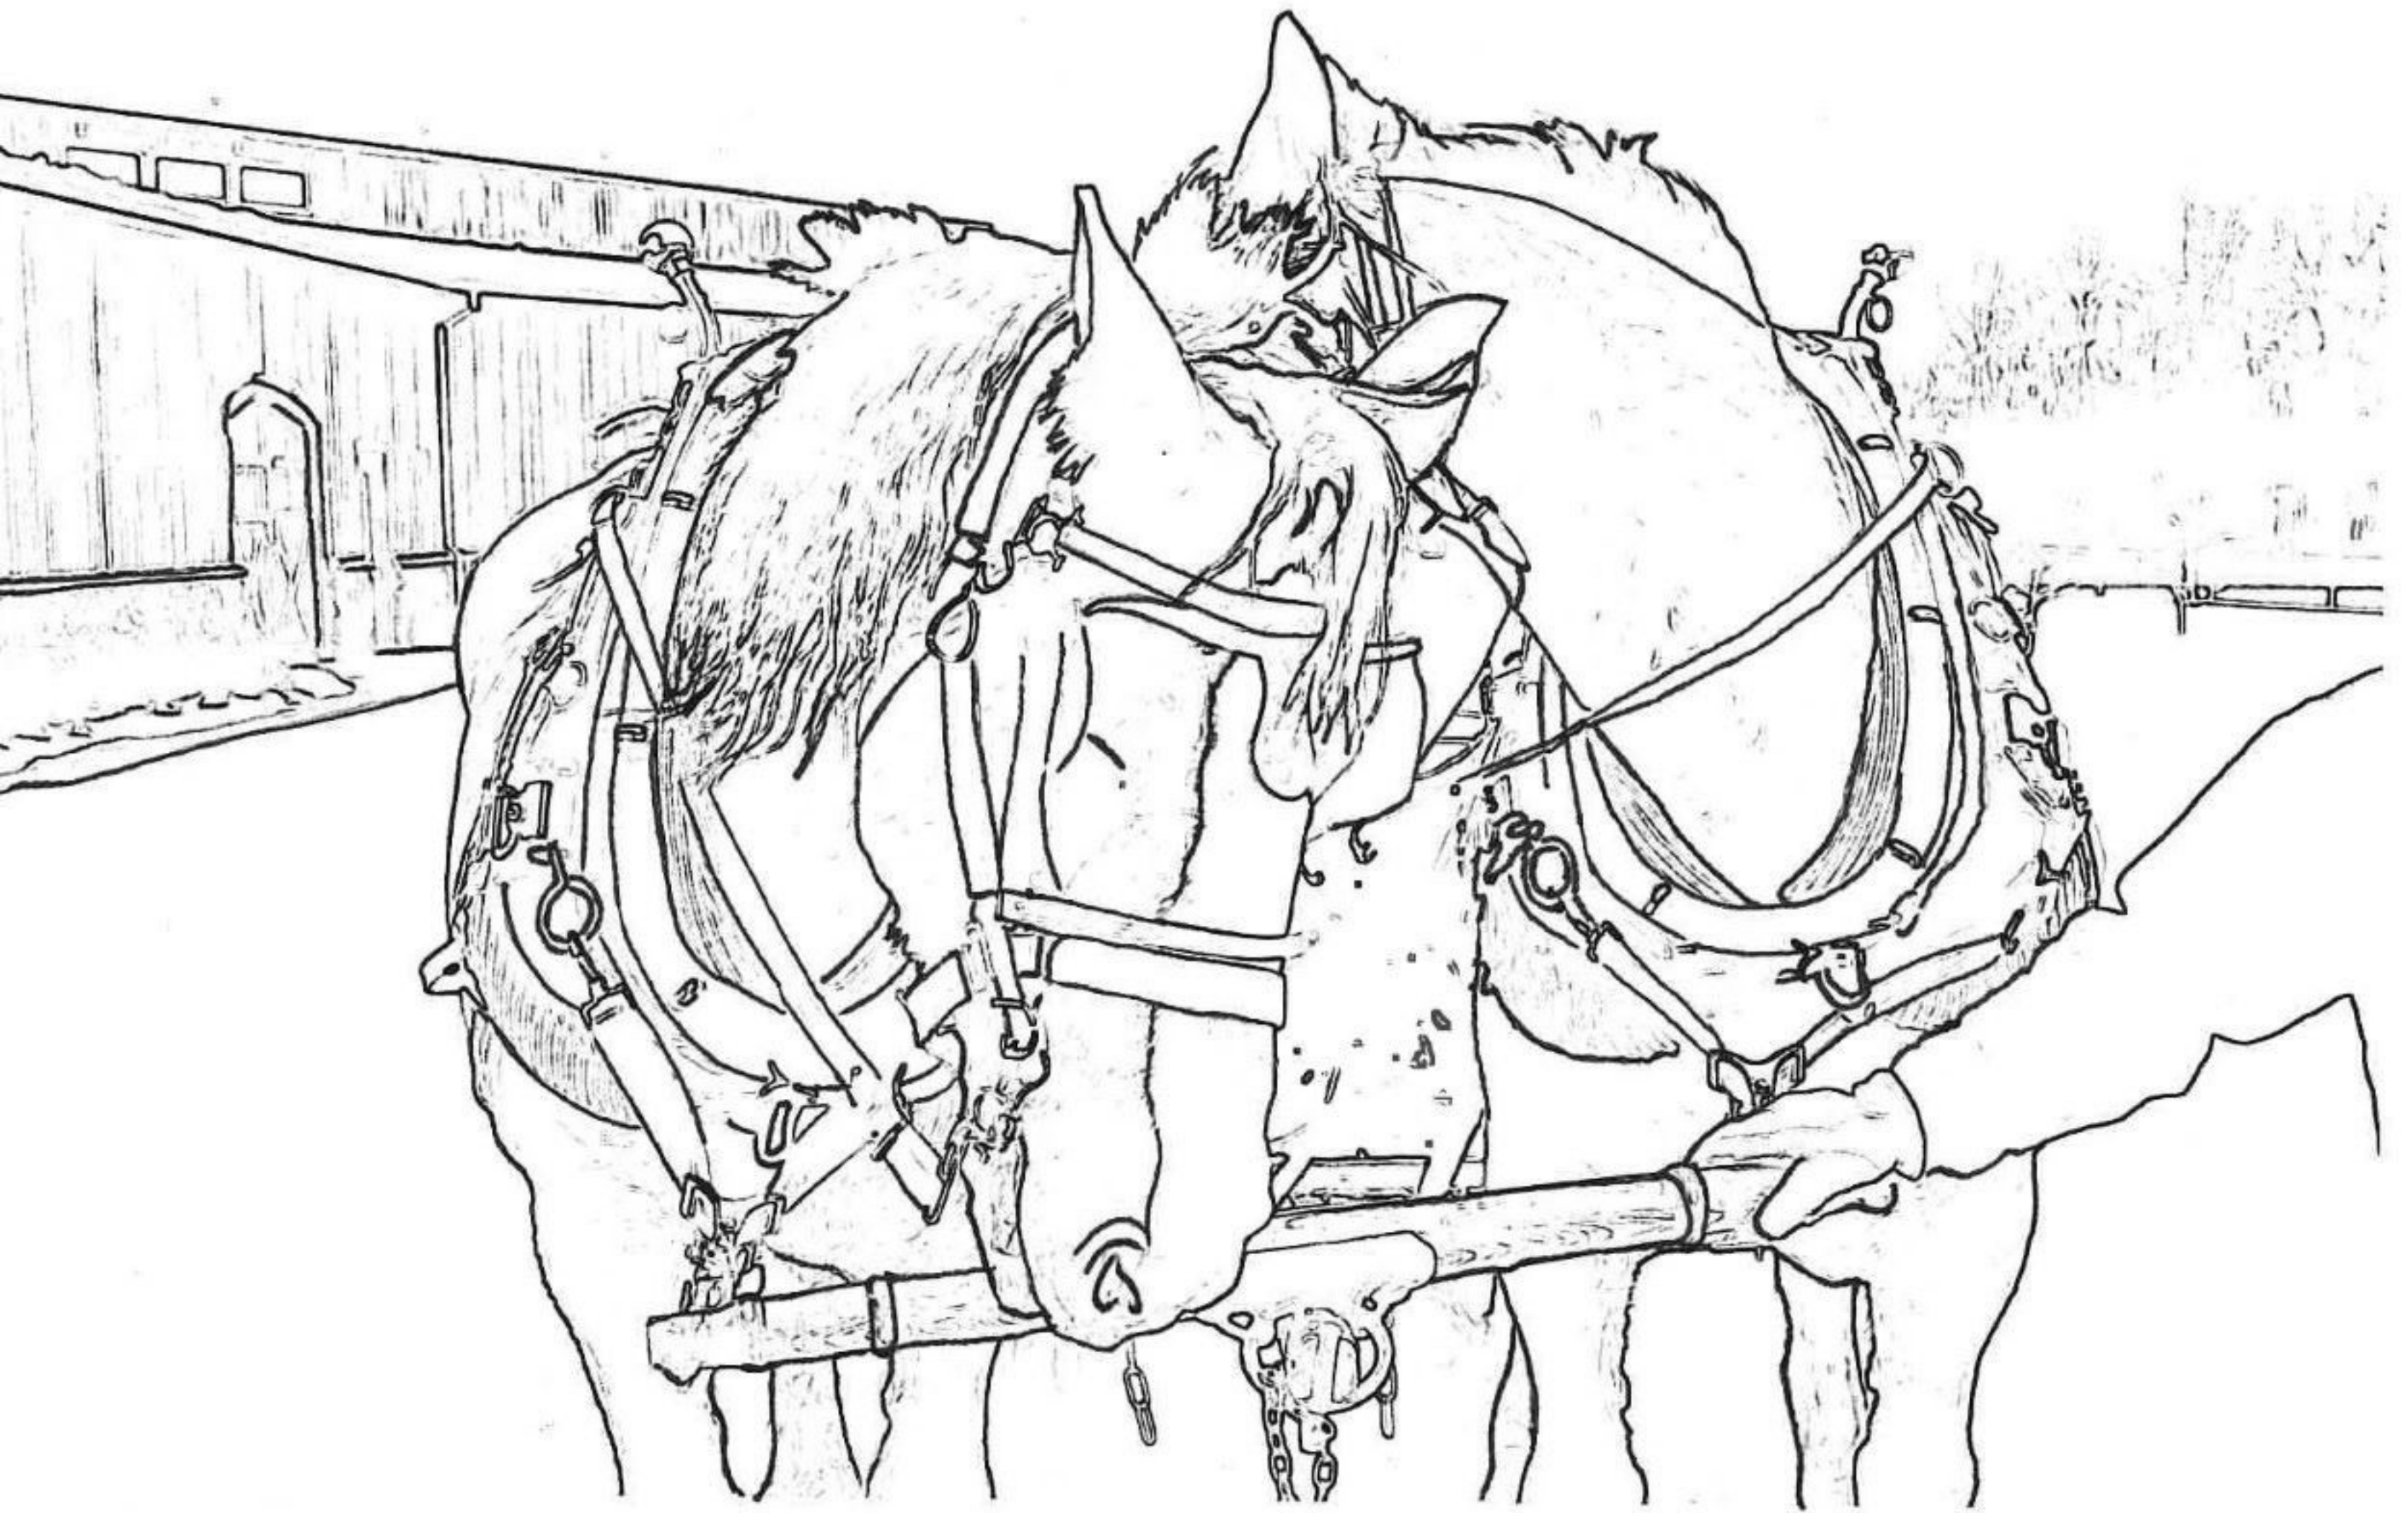

U.S. EAST

22

The Pinolino Brothers

The Gentlemen responsible.

Villa Louis

(VILL-uh LOO-ee)

The home of the Dousman family from 1871-1913. Mr. and Mrs. Louis and Nina Dousman lived here with their five children: Violet, Virginia, Nina, Louis, and Judith.

Acme Royal Stove

In the Victorian Era, many women worked as cooks who made food for wealthy families like the Dousmans.

The cooks worked on woodstoves like this one, making six meals every day—three for the family and three more for their servants.