

Dear Students, Teachers, and Volunteers,

Thank you for your participation in the National History Day in Wisconsin program. The UW-Stevens Point regional event is still on tomorrow, March 12 and we look forward to seeing you.

Please note that the FINAL and updated program is posted online:

There are a few changes to the schedule from the previous version to accommodate judging schedules and final round judging. Please confirm students have the up to date version.

The campus administration of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point confirmed today, Wednesday March 11 that the regional contest may proceed. The Wisconsin Historical Society receives direction through the Office of the Governor, the Department of Administration, the Wisconsin Department of Health Services, and State emergency management agencies. At this time, there are no directives to cancel events.

During the regional contest, please follow these basic guidelines for good hygiene and health habits:

- Wash your hands often with soap and water and scrub for at least 20 seconds, especially after blowing your nose, coughing, or sneezing; going to the bathroom; and before eating or preparing food.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands. Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
- Cover your mouth and nose when coughing or sneezing, and cough or sneeze into your elbow.
- Cover your cough or sneeze with a tissue, then throw the tissue in the trash.

We ask participants and volunteers to:

- 1) Not shake hands
- 2) Make good use of hand sanitizer
- 3) Wash your hands frequently

If you are feeling unwell please stay home and contact the contest coordinators. Please also reach out with any other questions or concerns.
